Words by CHARLEY HOWARD—Music by WALTER BRAY.

Arranged by Eddie Fox.

Oh ! Martha wept and Mary cried :
We're all surrounded :
The good old man has gone and died,
We're all surrounded.
Shake off your slumbers and arise,
We're all surrounded :
The sun is shining in the skies,
We're all surrounded.
Chorus : Then carry the news,
Carry the news to Mary !
Carry the news,
We're all surrounded. [Dance.]

The good old man we'll see no more,
We're all surrounded :
He has gone to the happy shore,
We're all surrounded.
He's gone and left us darks alone,
We're all surrounded :
And Gabriel's trumpet called him home,
We're all surrounded.
Then carry the news, &c.

Adam and Eve climbed up a tree,
We're all surrounded :
Their lamb and master for to see,
We're all surrounded.
Eve stole an apple from the tree,
We're all surrounded :
And Adam was stung by a bumble Bee,
We're all surrounded.
Then carry the news, &c.
